CLIMATE.

The Mean temperature of any place, for the year, is a matter of great importance. The mean temperature at the resorts along the South Jersey Coast is found to be 54 degrees. This is almost the point marked temperate on the thermometric scale, in fact, the isothermal line or line of equal heat indicating a temperature of 55 degrees which yearly average is to be found at very few points on the face of the Globe, wherever the mean is found, just at the temperate point, there we have one of the most important desiderata in the health and happiness and comfortable existence throughout the year, makes the County of Cape May one of the most enjoyable spots on the face of the Globe in which to reside which is proven by its rapid growth.

No resort on the coast is so admirably situated as Wildwood from the standpoint of ideal year-round climate and other natural advantages such as bathing, boating, fishing and crabbing. Instead of the wide stretch of heated sand behind it, the broad Delaware Bay, a great inland sea, at this point thirty miles wide, insures cool breezes no matter what the direction of the wind. This is why it is always cool in Wildwood in summer and delightfully mild and balmy in winter.

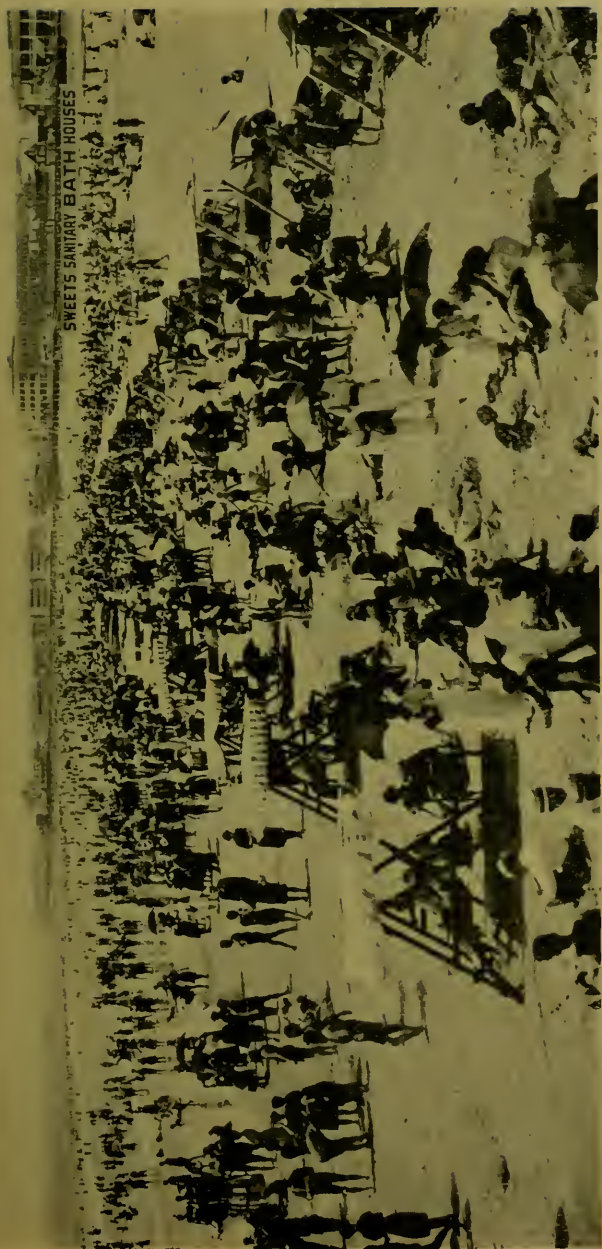

The island known as Five Mile Beach embraces three municipalities.

The city of Wildwood which was formed in 1911 by the consolidation of Holly Beach with Wildwood in the centre, the borough of Wildwood Crest on the southerly end of the island, and North Wildwood, formerly Anglesea, on the northerly end.

From the point on the northerly end boats run every half hour to Stone Harbor; on the southerly end boats run every half hour to Cape May which is the extreme end or point of land between the Delaware Bay and Atlantic Ocean which makes this the coolest spot in the summer being less than six miles from Ocean to Bay.

The deep Inland Water Way gives to Five Mile Beach, with the three canals running into the very centre of the business part of the island, cheap transportation. The fishing for pleasure is known to every angler of the East as the very best. As an industry, thousands of barrels of fish are shipped to all parts of the country annually. Fish of every variety of the deep sea-beach bass or drum fish weighing 50 to 75 lbs. are caught, and at the compiling of this book thousands of visitors are viewing the horse mackerel weighing 1080 lbs., caught in the ocean 5 miles from this resort.

Mackerel-cod, porgies, weak-fish, blue-fish, flounders, sea bass and king fish being the principal fish shipped.

Increase of Seaside Resorts as Recorded in Their Annual Taxable Valuables

FIVE MILE BEACH HAS BIG GAIN

The subjoined tables show the assessable values and growth of the seashore resorts of Cape May County, according to the yearly return of the tax assessor. It is interesting to note, that in 1891, when Atlantic City's total values reached $10,865,634, it may be said to have reached the same period of growth and occupied approximately the same area as the resorts on Five Mile Beach do in 1913. The actual increase in twelve years of Five Mile Beach is $10,609,444, making an average of over $2,422 a day, or just about a new house daily for that period. The history of Atlantic City's growth, as well as that of the leading resorts of Cape May County, as recorded in their increase of taxable values, is given below:

Combined resorts of Five Mile Beach, including Anglesea, Wildwood, Holly Beach and Wildwood Crest:

THE annual scene or Custom on Memorial Day in honor of our Sailors lost at Sea is the launching of the Floral Boat "Mystic" loaded with flowers.

Leading up to this event is the pageant or Historical Parade on the Boardwalk, participated in by the Sailors and Soldiers, School Children and Patriotic Organizations.

Thousands line the Beach and Boardwalk to view the May Pole Dance performed by 50 or more schoolgirls beautifully dressed in white.

MAY POLE, DECORATION DAY

Boat trips from the northern end of the island at old Anglesea. There are several lines of boats running between Anglesea, Stone Harbor and Avalon, which is continued by way of Ocean City to Atlantic City. A fine one-day trip at small expense, costing little more than $1.00 each way. There is also a fleet of about 100 boats that leave Anglesea each morning on the arrival of the excursion trains for the fishing banks where the finest deep sea fishing is to be had to which they cater, returning in the evening in time to catch the returning trains. Thousands enjoy these fishing trips each day.

From the Southern end of Wildwood Crest boats leave every half hour for Cape May, fare 30 cents round trip. Very pleasant outings for a warm afternoon.
